AN ACT CONCERNING THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SENTENCING COMMISSION REGARDING THE CLASSIFICATION OF UNCLASSIFIED MISDEMEANORS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

- 1 Section 1. Section 53a-26 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- 2 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 3 (a) An offense for which a person may be sentenced to a term of
- 4 imprisonment of not more than one year is a misdemeanor.
- 5 (b) Misdemeanors are classified for the purposes of sentence as
- 6 follows: (1) Class A, (2) class B, (3) class C, (4) class D, and [(4)] (5)
- 7 unclassified.
- 8 (c) The particular classification of each misdemeanor defined in this 9 chapter is expressly designated in the section defining it.
- 10 (d) Any offense defined in any [other] section of the general statutes
- 11 which, by virtue of an expressly specified sentence, is within the
- 12 definition set forth in subsection (a) of this section, but for which a
- 13 particular classification is not expressly designated, shall be deemed:

- 14 (1) A class A misdemeanor if the maximum term of imprisonment
- 15 specified is one year; (2) a class B misdemeanor if the maximum term
- 16 of imprisonment specified is six months; (3) a class C misdemeanor if
- 17 the maximum term of imprisonment specified is three months; (4) a
- 18 class D misdemeanor if the maximum term of imprisonment specified
- 19 is thirty days; and (5) an unclassified misdemeanor if the maximum
- 20 term of imprisonment specified is a term other than a term set forth in
- 21 subdivision (1), (2), (3) or (4) of this subsection.
- 22 Sec. 2. Section 53a-36 of the general statutes is repealed and the 23 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 24 A sentence of imprisonment for a misdemeanor shall be a definite
- sentence and, unless the section of the general statutes that defines or 26 provides the penalty for the crime specifically provides otherwise, the
- 27 term shall be fixed by the court as follows: (1) For a class A
- 28 misdemeanor, a term not to exceed one year; (2) for a class B
- 29 misdemeanor, a term not to exceed six months; (3) for a class C
- 30 misdemeanor, a term not to exceed three months; (4) for a class D
- misdemeanor, a term not to exceed thirty days; and [(4)] (5) for an 31
- 32 unclassified misdemeanor, a term in accordance with the sentence
- 33 specified in the section of the general statutes that defines or provides
- 34 the penalty for the crime.

- 35 Sec. 3. Section 53a-42 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- 36 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 37 A fine for the conviction of a misdemeanor shall, unless the section
- 38 of the general statutes that defines or provides the penalty for the
- 39 crime specifically provides otherwise, be fixed by the court as follows:
- 40 (1) For a class A misdemeanor, an amount not to exceed two thousand
- 41 dollars; (2) for a class B misdemeanor, an amount not to exceed one
- 42 thousand dollars; (3) for a class C misdemeanor, an amount not to
- 43 exceed five hundred dollars; (4) for a class D misdemeanor, an amount
- 44 not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars; and (5) for an unclassified
- 45 misdemeanor, an amount in accordance with the fine specified in the

- section of the general statutes that defines or provides the penalty for the crime.
- Sec. 4. Subsection (d) of section 53a-29 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012, and applicable to sentences imposed for crimes committed on or after said date):
- 52 (d) Except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, the period of 53 probation or conditional discharge, unless terminated sooner as 54 provided in section 53a-32 or 53a-33, shall be as follows: (1) For a class 55 B felony, not more than five years; (2) for a class C or D felony or an 56 unclassified felony, not more than three years; (3) for a class A 57 misdemeanor, not more than two years; (4) for a class B, [or] C or D 58 misdemeanor, not more than one year; and (5) for an unclassified 59 misdemeanor, not more than one year if the authorized sentence of 60 imprisonment is [three] six months or less, or not more than two years 61 if the authorized sentence of imprisonment is in excess of [three] six 62 months, or where the defendant is charged with failure to provide 63 subsistence for dependents, a determinate or indeterminate period.
- Sec. 5. Section 8-12 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

If any building or structure has been erected, constructed, altered, converted or maintained, or any building, structure or land has been used, in violation of any provision of this chapter or of any bylaw, ordinance, rule or regulation made under authority conferred hereby, any official having jurisdiction, in addition to other remedies, may institute an action or proceeding to prevent such unlawful erection, construction, alteration, conversion, maintenance or use or to restrain, correct or abate such violation or to prevent the occupancy of such building, structure or land or to prevent any illegal act, conduct, business or use in or about such premises. Such regulations shall be enforced by the officer or official board or authority designated therein, who shall be authorized to cause any building, structure, place or premises to be inspected and examined and to order in writing the remedying of any condition found to exist therein or thereon in violation of any provision of the regulations made under authority of the provisions of this chapter or, when the violation involves grading of land, the removal of earth or soil erosion and sediment control, to issue, in writing, a cease and desist order to be effective immediately. The owner or agent of any building or premises where a violation of any provision of such regulations has been committed or exists, or the lessee or tenant of an entire building or entire premises where such violation has been committed or exists, or the owner, agent, lessee or tenant of any part of the building or premises in which such violation has been committed or exists, or the agent, architect, builder, contractor or any other person who commits, takes part or assists in any such violation or who maintains any building or premises in which any such violation exists, shall be fined not less than ten [nor] dollars or more than one hundred dollars for each day that such violation continues; but, if the offense is wilful, the person convicted thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars [nor] or more than two hundred [and] fifty dollars for each day that such violation continues, or imprisoned not more than ten days for each day such violation continues not to exceed a maximum of thirty days for such violation, or both; and the Superior Court shall have jurisdiction of all such offenses, subject to appeal as in other cases. Any person who, having been served with an order to discontinue any such violation, fails to comply with such order within ten days after such service, or having been served with a cease and desist order with respect to a violation involving grading of land, removal of earth or soil erosion and sediment control, fails to comply with such order immediately, or continues to violate any provision of the regulations made under authority of the provisions of this chapter specified in such order shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars, payable to the treasurer of the municipality. In any criminal prosecution under this section, the defendant may plead in abatement that such criminal prosecution is based on a zoning ordinance or regulation which is the subject of a civil action wherein one of the 112 113 issues is the interpretation of such ordinance or regulations, and that 114 the issues in the civil action are such that the prosecution would fail if 115 the civil action results in an interpretation different from that claimed 116 by the state in the criminal prosecution. If the court renders judgment 117 for such municipality and finds that the violation was wilful, the court 118 shall allow such municipality its costs, together with reasonable 119 attorney's fees to be taxed by the court. The court before which such 120 prosecution is pending may order such prosecution abated if it finds 121 that the allegations of the plea are true.

- Sec. 6. Subsection (h) of section 14-283 of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 125 (h) Any person who wilfully or negligently obstructs or retards any 126 ambulance or vehicle operated by a member of an emergency medical 127 service organization while answering any emergency call or taking a 128 patient to a hospital, or any vehicle used by a fire department or any 129 officer or member of a fire department while on the way to a fire, or 130 while responding to an emergency call, or any vehicle used by the 131 state police or any local police department, or any officer of the 132 Division of State Police within the Department of Emergency Services 133 and Public Protection or any local police department while on the way 134 to an emergency call or in the pursuit of fleeing law violators, shall be 135 fined not more than [two hundred dollars or imprisoned not more 136 than seven days, or both] two hundred fifty dollars.
- Sec. 7. Section 15-25 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- Any person who removes, damages or destroys any buoy, beacon, channel marker or floating guide placed in the waters of this state by authority of the Commissioner of Transportation or the harbor master of any harbor, or moors or in any manner attaches any boat, vessel or raft of any kind to such buoy, beacon, channel marker or floating guide, unless his life, or the safety of the vessel in which he is, is endangered, or cuts down, removes, damages or destroys any beacon or navigational aid erected on land in this state, shall be fined not [less than two hundred fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not more than sixty days or both] more than one thousand dollars.

Sec. 8. Subsection (h) of section 15-144 of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

(h) (1) Any person who operates or any owner who permits the operation of a vessel on the waters of this state which has not been numbered or registered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and any other applicable section of the general statutes shall have committed a violation and shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars or more than two hundred dollars for the first offense and for each subsequent offense shall be fined not less than two hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars. (2) No person shall use any vessel registration or registration decals that have been issued to another person pursuant to sections 15-142 to 15-144, inclusive. No person shall use a vessel registration or registration decals on any vessel other than the vessel for which such registration number or registration decals have been issued. Any person who violates any provision of this subdivision shall be fined not more than [one hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both] two hundred fifty dollars. (3) Any officer empowered to enforce the provisions of this chapter and any other applicable section of the general statutes who finds a vessel which is not numbered or registered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and such discovery is subsequent to a violation of this chapter may make application to the court for a warrant to seize such vessel and take it into custody pending proof of payment of proper numbering or registration fees. No officer shall be liable for any act performed under the provisions of this subsection.

Sec. 9. Subsection (d) of section 15-154 of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

(d) Upon the immediate approach of a law enforcement vessel using an audible signal device and flashing blue lights or a fire rescue vessel using an audible signal device and flashing red or yellow lights, any person operating a vessel shall immediately slow to a speed sufficient to maintain steerage only, shall alter course, within its ability, so as not to inhibit or interfere with the operation of the law enforcement vessel or fire rescue vessel, and shall proceed, unless otherwise directed by an officer in the law enforcement vessel or fire rescue vessel, at a reduced speed until beyond the area of operation of the law enforcement vessel or fire rescue vessel. Any person operating a vessel who wilfully or negligently obstructs or retards any law enforcement or fire rescue vessel answering an emergency call or in pursuit of fleeing law violators [,] shall be fined not more than [two hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than seven days, or both] two hundred fifty dollars.

Sec. 10. Section 16-44 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

Whenever any company is organized for the purpose of doing business as a public service company, or whenever any company so organized acquires any plant or any part of a plant or equipment, or begins doing business as a public service company, or whenever any foreign public service company commences business in this state, or whenever any public service company doing business in this state merges with any other company or companies or permanently discontinues doing business as a public service company, or changes its corporate name, the secretary of the company shall, within ten days from the date thereof, notify the Public Utilities Regulatory Authority of the action of the company or companies, on blanks to be furnished by the authority on request. The secretary of any public service

- 209 company who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall
- 210 be fined not more than [two hundred dollars or imprisoned not more
- 211 than sixty days or both] two hundred fifty dollars.
- Sec. 11. Section 19a-113 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- The Commissioner of Public Health shall adopt, in accordance with
- 215 chapter 54, and enforce regulations concerning the quality of the
- 216 compressed air sold for use in self-contained underwater breathing
- 217 apparatus. No compressed air shall be sold or distributed for such use
- 218 unless it complies with the standards of quality established by the
- 219 commissioner. Any person who violates the provisions of this section
- shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars. [or imprisoned not
- 221 more than five months, or both.]
- Sec. 12. Section 20-249 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- Any licensed master barber who fails to comply with any regulation
- adopted under this chapter shall forfeit his right to be again licensed.
- 226 Any person who practices the occupation of a master barber without
- 227 having obtained a certificate of registration, or [who] wilfully employs
- 228 a master barber who does not have such a certificate, or falsely
- pretends to be qualified to practice such occupation, or practices the
- 230 occupation of a master barber after the expiration of his license, or
- 231 violates any other provision of this chapter, unless a penalty is
- otherwise specifically prescribed, shall be fined not more than [one
- 233 hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] two
- 234 hundred fifty dollars.
- Sec. 13. Section 20-366 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- Any person who knowingly or wilfully violates any provision of
- 238 this chapter shall be fined not more than [three hundred dollars or be imprisoned not more than three months or both] five hundred dollars.

Sec. 14. Section 21-1 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

Each person who exposes for sale by auction any goods or articles, except provisions, charcoal, wood, the products of a farm and secondhand household furniture, in any town, city or borough of which he is not a resident, without a license therefor from a majority of the selectmen of such town or from the authorities of such city or borough authorized by the charter or ordinances of such city or borough to issue such license, shall be fined not more than [fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than sixty days or both] two hundred fifty dollars. This section shall not apply to any auction conducted by or contracted for the state in accordance with any court order, under the provisions of section 54-36b or section 54-36c.

Sec. 15. Section 22-12b of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

The breeding and raising in captivity of foxes, mink, chinchilla, marten, fisher, nutria and muskrat, and the marketing of such animals, shall be classified as farming and as an agricultural pursuit and all such animals so raised in captivity, or lawfully acquired, shall be classified as domestic animals. No person shall possess two or more such animals of opposite sex without first obtaining a fur breeder's license from the Department of Agriculture. The fee for such license shall be sixteen dollars. Such license shall be annual and nontransferable and shall expire on the thirty-first day of December after its issuance. All applications for such licenses shall be upon blanks prepared and furnished by the Commissioner of Agriculture. All license fees received by the commissioner under the provisions of this section shall be transmitted to the State Treasurer and by him be applied to the General Fund. All licensees shall keep a record of all such animals exchanged or transported by such licensees, whether the same are alive or dead, and shall report to the commissioner at the expiration of the license period, on forms furnished by the commissioner, the number of animals possessed at the beginning of the license period, those disposed of during such period and the number of animals on hand at the close of the period. For purposes of disease control, the commissioner at his discretion may require special import or export permits for any specified period. Said commissioner, in the interest of protecting game or domestic animals from disease, may confiscate animals possessed by licensees referred to herein, and may quarantine the same, and may destroy such animals when, in his opinion, such action is advisable. Any license granted under the provisions of this section may be revoked by the commissioner for a violation of any regulation made by him or a violation of any provision of this section. Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be fined not more than [one hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both] two hundred fifty dollars.

Sec. 16. Section 22-167 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

No provision of section 22-133 shall affect the authority of any town, city or borough to enact ordinances concerning the sale or distribution, within its limits, of milk which may be detrimental to public health. In any town, city or borough where no local system of milk and cream control is provided for by charter, the local director of health or board of health may present, at a meeting of the electors warned and held for such purpose, proposed rules and regulations concerning the inspection of dairies and the production, care, handling, marketing or sale of milk or cream, the protection of the public from the use of milk or cream which may be detrimental to the public health and the granting of licenses to milk dealers. Upon approval by the town, city or borough, such rules and regulations shall be enforced in the town, city or borough by the director of health. Amendments of such rules and regulations shall be made in accordance with the procedure provided for their adoption. Such local directors of health or boards of health may revoke any license granted in accordance herewith after

- 304 due notice and hearing for violation of any such rules and regulations. 305 Any person who produces, handles, markets or sells milk or cream 306 within the limits of any town, city or borough in which such rules and 307 regulations are in effect, without a license as hereinbefore provided, 308 shall be fined not more than [one hundred dollars or imprisoned not 309 more than thirty days or both] two hundred fifty dollars. Any person 310 aggrieved by the failure of the local director of health or board of 311 health to grant a license in accordance with the foregoing provisions or 312 by the action of such director of health or board in revoking a license 313 may appeal from the action of such director of health or board to the 314 Milk Regulation Board in accordance with the provisions of sections 315 22-169 and 22-170.
- Sec. 17. Section 22a-363 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- Any person violating any provision of sections 22a-359 to 22a-362, inclusive, shall be fined not [less than fifteen dollars nor more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than thirty days or be both fined and imprisoned] more than two hundred fifty dollars.
- Sec. 18. Section 25-43 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 325 (a) Any person who bathes or swims in any reservoir from which 326 the inhabitants of any town, city or borough are supplied with water, 327 or in any lake, pond or stream tributary to any distribution reservoir, 328 or in any part of any lake, pond or stream tributary to any storage 329 reservoir, which part is distant less than two miles measured along the 330 flow of water from any part of such storage reservoir, and any person 331 who causes or allows any pollutant or harmful substance to enter any 332 such public water supply reservoir, whether distribution or storage, or 333 any of its tributaries, or commits any nuisance in any public water 334 supply reservoir or its watershed, shall be fined not more than five 335 hundred dollars. [or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.]

For the purposes of this section, "storage reservoir" means an artificial impoundment of substantial amounts of water, used or designed for the storage of a public water supply and the release thereof to a distribution reservoir, and "distribution reservoir" means a reservoir from which water is directly released into pipes or pipelines leading to treatment or purification facilities or connected directly with distribution mains of a public water system.

- (b) No person, after having received notice or after notice has been posted that any reservoir, lake or pond, or any stream tributary thereto, is used for supplying the inhabitants of a town, city or borough with water, shall wash any animal or clothing or other article or allow any animal to enter therein. No person shall cause or allow any pollutant or harmful substance to enter such reservoir, lake, pond or stream, nor shall any person, after receipt of written notice from the municipality, water company, as defined in section 25-32a, or the local director of health having jurisdiction, or their agents, that the same is detrimental to such water supply, permit any such substance to be placed upon land owned, occupied or controlled by such person, so that the same may be carried by rains or freshets or otherwise flow into the water of such reservoir, lake, pond or stream, or allow to be drained any sewage from such land into such water. Any person who violates any provision of this subsection shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.
- (c) No person shall cause or permit an aircraft, as defined in subdivision (5) of section 15-34, to land upon, take off from or be operated, kept, parked, garaged, stored or otherwise maintained on any distribution or storage reservoir or on any watercourse tributary to any such reservoir. Any person who violates a provision of this subsection shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.
- 366 (d) Any water company, as defined in section 25-32a, aggrieved by a violation of this section may institute a civil action in the superior court

- Sec. 19. Section 25-45 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
  - The legislative body of any city or borough may make, alter and repeal ordinances to regulate or prevent fishing, trespassing or any nuisance in or upon any property of such city or borough or of any subdivision thereof. Such ordinances may provide for the imposition of a fine [not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both,] of not more than two hundred fifty dollars for any violation thereof. The common council of any city or the warden and burgesses of any borough may appoint special constables to protect reservoir property and to execute any such ordinance and any provision of the statutes relating to protection of water supply, and for that purpose such constables shall have all the powers of constables of towns.
- Sec. 20. Section 25-135 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- Any person who engages in well drilling or offers to engage in well drilling, or advertises or holds himself out or acts temporarily or otherwise as a well driller, without first having obtained the required registration and any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall be [prosecuted and punished as for a violation of the Public Health Code] fined not more than two hundred fifty dollars.
- Sec. 21. Section 26-18 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 397 Any person who, in making application to the Commissioner of

- 398 Energy and Environmental Protection for any fish, fish fry, fingerling
- fish, game or game bird or any egg of any game bird, makes any false
- statement concerning the use to be made thereof, with intent to deceive
- 401 the commissioner, or who makes any use thereof other than that
- 402 specified in such application, shall be fined not more than [one
- 403 hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both] two
- 404 hundred fifty dollars.
- Sec. 22. Subsection (c) of section 26-42 of the general statutes is
- 406 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective
- 407 October 1, 2012):
- 408 (c) Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be
- 409 fined not [less than one hundred dollars or more than two hundred
- 410 fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than ten days or be both fined and
- 411 imprisoned more than two hundred fifty dollars.
- Sec. 23. Section 26-43 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- Any licensed resident fur dealer or any other person who sells raw
- 415 furs to any unlicensed nonresident fur dealer while within the
- 416 boundaries of this state or who aids such unlicensed nonresident
- dealer, while within the boundaries of this state, in buying raw furs
- shall be fined not [less than one hundred dollars nor more than two
- 419 hundred and fifty dollars or be imprisoned not more than ten days or
- 420 be both fined and imprisoned] more than two hundred fifty dollars,
- 421 and such licensed resident fur dealer shall forfeit his fur dealer's
- license for one year from the date of his conviction.
- Sec. 24. Section 26-56 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- 424 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- No person shall transport into this state any wild have or rabbit or
- 426 liberate in this state any such animal which has been so transported,
- 427 without a permit from the commissioner, except that wild hares

- 428 known as snowshoe rabbits or variant hares may be imported without 429 a permit from any of the New England states or the Province of 430 Quebec or the maritime provinces of Canada and liberated in this state, 431 subject to regulations issued by the commissioner, any statute to the 432 contrary notwithstanding. The commissioner may quarantine, 433 confiscate, destroy or otherwise dispose of any wild hare or rabbit 434 other than a snowshoe rabbit or variant hare imported into this state 435 and may make regulations as to importation and liberation of any such 436 animal. Any person who violates any provision of this section or any 437 regulation made under any such provision shall be fined not more 438 than [one hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or 439 both] two hundred fifty dollars.

- 461 (a) The closed season, daily bag limit and possession limit for 462 migratory game birds and the methods of taking such game birds shall 463 be at least as stringent as the closed season, daily bag limit, possession 464 limit and methods of taking, including allowable compositions of 465 nontoxic shot, fixed for such birds by the regulations of the United 466 States Fish and Wildlife Service, made under the provisions of an Act 467 of Congress Relating to Migratory Birds. Nothing in this section shall 468 affect the right to kill or have in possession to be sold or offered for 469 sale wild ducks, geese and brant, bred or propagated by any domestic 470 breeder. Any person who violates any provision of this [section] 471 subsection shall be fined not more than [fifty dollars or imprisoned not 472 more than thirty days, or both] two hundred fifty dollars. The 473 possession of each bird or part thereof shall constitute a separate 474 offense.
- Sec. 28. Section 26-94 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- Any person who hunts, takes, wounds or kills or attempts to hunt, take, wound or kill any species of swan, including the whistling swan (Cygnus columbianus), the trumpeter swan (Cygnus buccinator) and the mute swan (Stehenelides olor), shall be fined not more than [one hundred dollars or be imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] two hundred fifty dollars.
- Sec. 29. Section 26-98 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- Any person who violates any provision of this part, or any regulation issued by the commissioner pursuant thereto, for which no other penalty is provided, or who makes any material false statement in procuring any permit, shall be fined not [less than ten dollars nor more than two hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty

- days or be both fined and imprisoned] more than two hundred fifty
- 491 dollars, and the possession of each bird or part thereof, taken or
- 492 possessed in violation of any such provision, shall constitute a separate
- 493 offense.
- Sec. 30. Section 26-104 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 496 No person shall hunt, take, kill or attempt to kill any duck, geese, 497 brant, swan or other waterfowl or shore birds or waders protected by 498 law, resting on or flying over the waters of Bantam Lake or that part of 499 Bantam River located between said lake and a distance of five hundred 500 feet below the second highway bridge located adjacent to the jambs, so 501 called, or shall kill or attempt to kill any such birds within a distance of 502 two hundred feet from the water level of said lake. The commissioner 503 or any agent of the department may, within the discretion of the 504 commissioner, take and kill wild animals or birds in or above said 505 waters which said commissioner determines to be destructive of any 506 wildlife protected by the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner 507 may, with the approval of the Governor, build or erect a structure or 508 dam with a fish screen thereon on Bantam River, but such structure or 509 dam shall not contain a gate. Any person who violates any provision 510 of this section shall be fined not more than [one hundred dollars or 511 imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] two hundred fifty 512 dollars.
- Sec. 31. Section 26-105 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- No person shall hunt, take, kill or attempt to kill any duck, goose, brant, swan or other waterfowl or shore bird or wader protected by
- law, resting on or flying over the waters of Lake Wononscopomuc, or
- kill or attempt to kill any such bird within a distance of five hundred
- feet from the water level of said lake, except that when in the opinion
- of the first selectman and the conservation commission, waterfowl
- 521 have reached numbers that are considered a nuisance or threaten to 522 affect adversely the quality of the water of said lake, the chief 523 executive officer of the town of Salisbury, acting as the issuing agent of 524 the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection, may issue 525 permits to hunt such waterfowl. Any person violating this section shall 526 be fined not more than [one hundred dollars or imprisoned not more 527 than thirty days, or both two hundred fifty dollars. The commissioner 528 or any agent of the department may, within the discretion of said 529 commissioner, take and kill wild animals or birds in or above said 530 waters which the commissioner determines to be destructive of any 531 wildlife protected by the provisions of this chapter.

- Sec. 32. Section 26-217 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- No person shall use any dredge with a chain bag having rings of less than three-quarters of an inch in diameter, or any net bag with smaller mesh than two inches from knot to knot, on any natural oyster bed. Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be fined not more than [fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] two hundred fifty dollars.
- Sec. 33. Subsection (a) of section 26-232 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
  - (a) Any person who (1) between the twentieth day of July and the twentieth day of September, gathers or takes any oysters or shells from any natural oyster bed specified in section 26-193 other than any such bed in the Housatonic River, (2) between the twentieth day of July and the twentieth day of September in any year, gathers or takes any oysters or shells in the Saugatuck River, or (3) between the twentieth day of July and the twentieth day of October in any year, gathers or takes any oysters or shells in the Housatonic River shall be fined not more than [one hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] two hundred fifty dollars; provided nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the gathering or taking of shells shellfish grounds lying in such municipality or municipalities not granted to others and not under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Agriculture, including all rivers, inland waters and flats adjacent to all beaches and waters within the limits and marine bounds of the municipality or municipalities. The commission may designate suitable places in the navigable waters within its jurisdiction for planting or cultivating oysters, clams or mussels. The commission may issue licenses for the taking of shellfish therefrom and fix the fees therefor, may designate the quantities of such shellfish to be taken, the sizes of such shellfish and the methods of taking. The commission may prohibit the taking of such shellfish from certain designated areas for periods not in excess of one year. All moneys collected by the commission under the provisions of this section shall be paid to the commission and used by it for the protection and propagation of the shellfish under its control. Any person who violates any regulation issued by the commission pursuant to this section shall be fined not more than [fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] two hundred fifty dollars.

Sec. 36. Section 26-260 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

The selectmen of the towns of West Haven and Milford may, from time to time as they deem expedient, prohibit the taking of long or soft-shell clams from such portions of the natural clam grounds of their respective towns as they shall from time to time designate, for a period not exceeding one year at a time. When said selectmen designate any place or places within their respective towns from which the taking of long or soft-shell clams is prohibited as aforesaid, the selectmen of the town of West Haven shall publish at least twice in some newspaper published in the city of New Haven, and the selectmen of the town of Milford shall publish at least twice in some newspaper published or having a circulation in the town of Milford, a notice describing the grounds upon which such prohibition is operative, and shall further describe the boundaries of such grounds by posting notices, signed by

- 619 the selectmen of the town in which such grounds are situated, upon
- 620 the shore adjacent to such grounds. No person shall take or have in his
- 621 possession in either of said towns any long or soft-shell clams of less
- 622 than one and one-half inches in length; and no person shall take any
- 623 long or soft-shell clams from any grounds from which the taking of the
- 624 same is prohibited as aforesaid, during the time of such prohibition.
- 625 Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be fined
- 626 not more than [seven dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days
- 627 or both for each offense] two hundred fifty dollars.
- 628 Sec. 37. Section 26-276 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- 629 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 630 Except as otherwise provided, any person who, in any one day,
- 631 takes, gathers or collects more than two bushels of oysters, clams,
- 632 mussels or shells, from any portion of Hammonasset River not
- 633 designated for planting shellfish, shall be fined not more than [twenty
- 634 dollars or imprisoned not more than sixty days or both two hundred
- 635 fifty dollars.
- 636 Sec. 38. Section 26-284 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- 637 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 638 Any person who takes or carries away from the Thames River any
- 639 oyster shells or seed oysters for the purpose of planting the same upon
- 640 any private oyster bed, or who takes or carries away from said river,
- 641 except from his own private bed or beds, more than ten bushels of
- 642 oysters in any one day, shall be fined not more than [seven dollars or
- 643 imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] two hundred fifty
- 644 dollars.
- 645 Sec. 39. Section 26-285 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- 646 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 647 Any person who takes any clams less than two inches in length or
- 648 more than one-half bushel of clams, or more than one-half bushel of

- oysters except from an area designated for planting oysters, in any day
- in the town of Old Lyme shall be fined not more than [fifty dollars or
- 651 imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] two hundred fifty
- 652 dollars.
- Sec. 40. Section 26-286 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- 654 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- Any person who takes any oysters from the inland waters of the
- 656 towns of East Lyme and Waterford above the demarcation line during
- 657 the months of June, July and August shall be fined not [less than seven
- dollars nor more than twenty dollars or imprisoned not more than
- 659 thirty days or be both fined and imprisoned] more than two hundred
- 660 fifty dollars.
- Sec. 41. Subsection (e) of section 26-287 of the general statutes is
- 662 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective
- 663 October 1, 2012):
- (e) Any person who violates any provision of this section or any
- regulation adopted pursuant to this section shall be fined not more
- 666 than [two hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than ten days or
- both] two hundred fifty dollars, and upon conviction the court may
- order that such person shall not be entitled to a permit or license to
- 669 take escallops, oysters and clams from the Niantic River until the
- beginning of the second season the river is opened by the commission
- 671 following such conviction.
- Sec. 42. Section 26-288 of the general statutes is repealed and the
- 673 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- No person shall have in his possession any escallops other than
- adult escallops. For the purpose of this section, an adult escallop is
- defined as an escallop having a well-defined growth line. All seed
- escallops taken shall be immediately returned alive to waters having a
- depth of at least three feet at mean low tide, except that the selectmen

of any town bordering on Long Island Sound may, on application, authorize such escallops to be removed and transplanted in waters along the sound. No person shall take any escallops from the first day of April to the first day of October or from sunset to sunrise, except that in the waters of Little Narragansett Bay no person shall take any escallops from the first day of April to the fifteenth day of September or from sunset to sunrise. No person shall use any rake, dredge, drag or other device which may be drawn along the surface of the bottom, except a device such as a scoop net which is attached to a pole and has an opening not more than sixteen inches wide and is used manually by the person engaged in taking escallops. No person shall open and return to the water the shell and entrails of any escallops after the eye or muscle has been removed, nor shall any starfish taken from the waters be returned thereto. Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be fined not more than [fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than sixty days or both] two hundred fifty dollars.

Sec. 43. Section 26-290 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

The town council of Groton may prohibit the taking of escallops from such portions of the waters of said town as they designate, for a period not exceeding one year at a time, and may designate the daily take of escallops from said waters not to exceed fifteen bushels per person or fifteen bushels per boat if more than one person is carried on said boat. When the council designates any place or places in said waters from which such taking is prohibited, they shall cause to be published, at least twice in a newspaper having a circulation in said town and at least ten days before such prohibition takes effect, a notice describing the place or places upon which and the period for which such prohibition is to be operative, and shall post copies of such notices, signed by the council, upon the shores adjacent to such places. No person shall, at any time, take escallops from said waters without having first obtained a permit issued by the council or any persons designated by it. Permits shall be issued for the taking of any amount 712 up to the daily limit upon application and the payment of fifteen cents 713 per bushel and shall be dated as of the day of issue or such other day 714 during the open season as the applicant may designate. Permits shall 715 be valid only for the day designated thereon. A season permit shall be 716 issued by the council upon application and the payment of ten dollars 717 and shall allow the taking of the daily limit for each day of the open 718 season. The council shall designate special officers for the enforcement 719 of this section, who shall receive compensation on a per diem basis. All 720 moneys collected under the provisions of this section shall be used by 721 the council for the protection, conservation and propagation of 722 escallops and other shellfish in the town waters. Any person who 723 violates any provision of this section shall be fined not more than [fifty 724 dollars or imprisoned not more than sixty days or be both fined and 725 imprisoned] two hundred fifty dollars and the court may order that a 726 permit shall not be issued to such person to take escallops in the 727 waters of the town of Groton for the remainder of the open season.

- Sec. 44. Subsection (c) of section 26-291a of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 731 (c) Any person who violates any provision of this section or any 732 regulation adopted pursuant to this section shall be fined not more 733 than [twenty-five dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or 734 both] two hundred fifty dollars, and upon conviction the court may 735 order that a permit shall not be issued to such person to take clams or 736 oysters from the waters of the town of Stonington for one year.
- Sec. 45. Section 26-292 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- The board of selectmen of the town of Stonington may prohibit the taking of escallops from such portions of the waters of said town as they designate, for a period not exceeding one year at a time, and may designate the daily take of escallops from said waters not to exceed fifteen bushels per person or fifteen bushels per boat if more than one

744 person is carried on such boat. When said selectmen designate any 745 place or places in said waters from which such taking is prohibited, 746 they shall cause to be published, at least twice in a newspaper having a 747 circulation in said town and at least ten days before such prohibition 748 takes effect, a notice describing the place or places upon which and the 749 period for which such prohibition is to be operative and shall post 750 copies of such notices, signed by said selectmen, upon the shores 751 adjacent to such places. No person shall, at any time, take escallops 752 from said waters without having first obtained a permit issued by the 753 selectmen or any persons designated by them. Permits shall be issued 754 for the taking of any amount up to the daily limit upon application and 755 the payment of a fee per bushel established by the selectmen but not 756 more than six dollars and shall be dated as of the day of issue or such 757 other day during the open season as the applicant may designate. 758 Permits shall be valid only for the day designated thereon. A season 759 permit shall be issued by the selectmen upon application and the 760 payment of a fee established by the selectmen but not more than sixty 761 dollars and shall allow the taking of the daily limit for each day of the 762 open season. The selectmen shall designate special officers for the 763 enforcement of this section, who shall receive compensation on a per 764 diem basis. All moneys collected under the provisions of this section 765 shall be used by the selectmen for the protection, conservation and 766 propagation of escallops and other shellfish in the town waters. Any 767 person who violates any provision of this section shall be fined not 768 more than [fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than sixty days or be 769 both fined and imprisoned] two hundred fifty dollars and the court 770 may order that a permit shall not be issued to such person to take 771 escallops in the waters of the town of Stonington for the remainder of 772 the open season.

Sec. 46. Section 29-25 of the general statutes is repealed and the 774 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

775 Each person, firm or corporation conducting a laundry or dry 776 cleaning establishment, or offering as an independent contractor the 777 services of such an establishment, shall report to the Commissioner of 778 Emergency Services and Public Protection, on forms supplied by the 779 commissioner, the type and style of laundry or dry cleaning 780 identification marks which are attached to or stamped or written upon 781 garments processed by such establishment when returned to the 782 customer. Such report shall be accompanied by actual samples of the 783 identification markings used. Each such person, firm or corporation 784 shall make such report immediately upon entering the business of 785 laundry or dry cleaning. Any change in identification marking 786 systems, either by eliminating such marking or changing the system of 787 identification marking used, shall be reported to the commissioner immediately. Each such laundry, dry cleaning establishment or 788 789 independent contractor shall retain customer records for a period of 790 not less than ninety days from the time the garments are delivered to 791 the customer. Any person, firm or corporation which violates any 792 provision of this section shall be fined not more than [one hundred 793 dollars or imprisoned not more than three months or be both fined and 794 imprisoned] two hundred fifty dollars.

- 795 Sec. 47. Subsection (b) of section 45a-283 of the general statutes is 796 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective 797 October 1, 2012):
- 798 (b) Every such person neglecting to do so shall be fined not more 799 than [one hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or 800 both] two hundred fifty dollars.
- 801 Sec. 48. Section 53-199 of the general statutes is repealed and the 802 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
- 803 No person owning, managing or conducting any place where any 804 moving picture or theatrical production is exhibited shall sell any 805 admission ticket or charge or receive any admission fee or collect or 806 receive any valuable thing from any person after the seating capacity 807 of such place has been exhausted, unless, at the time of such sale, 808 charge, receipt or collection, the person making such sale, charge or collection or receiving such admission fee or valuable thing distinctly announces to the person making such purchase, or from whom such charge or collection is made or fee or valuable thing received, that standing room only is available. The state police shall, in order to [insure] ensure safety and health, limit the number of persons that may occupy standing room in each place where any moving picture or theatrical production is exhibited, and shall require the person owning, managing or conducting such place to display conspicuously, at each entrance thereto, a placard upon which shall be plainly printed such standing room capacity. Any person who violates any provision of this section or any order of the Commissioner of Emergency Services and Public Protection made pursuant thereto limiting the number of persons that may occupy standing room in a theater where any moving picture or theatrical production is exhibited, or who fails to display conspicuously, at the entrance thereto, a placard on which shall be plainly printed such standing room capacity, shall be fined not more than [fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] two hundred fifty dollars.

Sec. 49. Section 53-280 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

The first selectman of any town, the chief of police of any city or the warden of any borough may grant permits to suitable persons to conduct public billiard and pool rooms in such town, city or borough, as the case may be, and may revoke any permit issued by him, for cause found after hearing. The use of any billiard or pool table for the purpose of gaming within any billiard or pool room, for the conduct of which a permit has been granted, or the carrying on within such billiard or pool room of any game of chance shall be sufficient cause for the revocation of such permit or for the refusal of a renewal of such permit. Each application for such a permit shall be in writing and shall describe the place where such billiard or pool room is to be located and state the number of tables to be used therein and the name of the proprietor thereof. Each such permit shall designate the place where

Sec. 54. Section 9-236 of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

(a) On the day of any primary, referendum or election, no person shall solicit on behalf of or in opposition to the candidacy of another or himself or on behalf of or in opposition to any question being submitted at the election or referendum, or loiter or peddle or offer any advertising matter, ballot or circular to another person within a radius of seventy-five feet of any outside entrance in use as an entry to any polling place or in any corridor, passageway or other approach leading from any such outside entrance to such polling place or in any room opening upon any such corridor, passageway or approach. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit (1) parent-teacher associations or parent-teacher organizations from holding bake sales or other fund-raising activities on the day of any primary, referendum or election in any school used as a polling place, provided such sales or activities shall not be held in the room in which the election booths are located, (2) the registrars of voters from directing the officials at a primary, referendum or election to distribute, within the restricted area, adhesive labels on which are imprinted the words "I Voted Today", or (3) the registrars of voters in a primary, election or referendum from jointly permitting nonpartisan activities to be conducted in a room other than the room in which the election booths are located. The registrars may jointly impose such conditions and limitations on such nonpartisan activity as deemed necessary to ensure the orderly process of voting. The moderator shall evict any person who in any way interferes with the orderly process of voting.

- (b) (1) The selectmen shall provide suitable markers to indicate the seventy-five-foot distance from such entrance. Such markers shall consist of a board resting on an iron rod, which board shall be not less than twelve inches square and painted a bright color and shall bear the figures and letters "75 feet" and the following words: "On the day of any primary, referendum or election no person shall solicit in behalf of or in opposition to another or himself or peddle or offer any ballot, advertising matter or circular to another person or loiter within a radius of seventy-five feet of any outside entrance in use as an entry to any polling place or in any corridor, passageway or other approach leading from any such outside entrance to such polling place or in any room opening upon any such corridor, passageway or approach."
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (1) of this subsection, the selectmen may provide the markers required by the provisions of this subsection in effect prior to October 1, 1983, except that in the case of a referendum which is not held in conjunction with an election or a primary, the selectmen shall provide the markers required by subdivision (1) of this subsection.
- (3) The moderator and the moderator's assistants shall meet at least twenty minutes before the opening of a primary, referendum or an election in the voting district, and shall cause to be placed by a police officer or constable, or such other primary or election official as they select, a suitable number of distance markers. Such moderator or any police officer or constable shall prohibit loitering and peddling of tickets within that distance.
- (c) No person except those permitted or exempt under this section or section 9-236a and primary or election officials and party checkers appointed under section 9-235 shall be allowed within any polling place except for the purpose of casting his vote. Representatives of the news media shall be allowed to enter, remain within and leave any polling place or restricted area surrounding any polling place to observe the election, provided any such representative who in any way interferes with the orderly process of voting shall be evicted by the moderator. A number of students in grades four to twelve, inclusive, not to exceed four at any one time in any one polling place, may enter any polling place between twelve o'clock noon and three o'clock p.m. for the purpose of observing the activities taking place in the polling place, provided there is proper parental or teacher supervision present, and provided further, any such student who in any way interferes with the orderly process of voting shall be evicted by the moderator. An elector may be accompanied into any polling place by one or more children who are fifteen years of age or younger and supervised by the elector if the elector is the parent or legal guardian of such children.

(d) Any person who violates any provision of this section or, while the polls are open for voting, removes or injures any such distance marker, shall be [fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than three months, or both] guilty of a class C misdemeanor.

Sec. 55. Section 9-396 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

At any caucus of the enrolled members of any party in any municipality or in any voting district of any municipality, the chairman of such caucus shall, upon the receipt of a written motion from any person lawfully participating in such caucus calling for a vote by ballot upon such matter as such motion designates, submit such motion to a rising vote; and, if fifteen electors present and legally entitled to participate in such caucus vote in favor of such motion, the vote on the matter specified in such motion shall be by ballot. The presiding officer shall thereupon appoint two tellers; and, upon the written application of fifteen electors legally entitled to participate in such caucus, he shall appoint a teller from the persons whose names appear on such application. Before any ballot is deposited, the name of the elector offering to vote shall be given to the clerk or secretary of such caucus, and such name shall be checked on the enrollment list of such party. No person shall vote or participate or attempt to vote or 1104 participate in any caucus of a party in any voting district unless he is 1105 enrolled on the last-completed enrollment list of such party in such 1106 voting district; provided, if the party rules of such party provide for a 1107 joint caucus for two or more voting districts of a municipality, a person 1108 may vote in such joint caucus if the voting district in which he is 1109 enrolled is participating in such joint caucus. Any person who violates 1110 any provision of this section shall be [fined not more than two 1111 hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] 1112 guilty of a class D misdemeanor.

Sec. 56. Subsection (a) of section 9-625 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective 1115 October 1, 2012):

(a) Any state referee or any judge of the Superior Court may, upon the written request of any state's attorney or any assistant state's attorney, conduct an inquiry as to whether any crime has been committed concerning any matters mentioned in such request, within the jurisdiction of such state's attorney or assistant state's attorney making such request, and any such referee or judge, and any such state's or assistant state's attorney, may compel the attendance of any person as a witness by subpoena issued by him; and such person, having been sworn as a witness, may be examined relative to any such matter under investigation. Such referee, judge or attorney may also compel the production for examination at such inquiry of any books or papers or any other thing which he may require in the conduct of such inquiry by subpoena duces tecum issued by him. Such referee or judge may cause any person who fails to appear before him as a witness, having been summoned, to be brought before him by a capias issued by him; and any person in attendance as a witness who refuses to be sworn as a witness, or who, being sworn, refuses to answer any proper question propounded to him, and any person summoned who fails to appear before the referee or judge, may be adjudged guilty of contempt [and fined not more than twenty-five dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or both] which shall be punishable as a class

Sec. 135. Section 26-72 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

The commissioner may, after notice and public hearing conducted in the manner prescribed by section 26-67, issue regulations governing and prescribing the taking of all species of fur-bearing animals by use of traps within the state. Such regulations may (1) establish the open and closed seasons, (2) establish the legal hours, (3) prescribe the legal methods that may be used, including size, type and kind of traps and the type and kind of bait and lures, (4) designate the places where traps may be placed and set and the conditions under which the placing and setting of traps will be legal, (5) establish the daily bag limit and the season bag limit, and (6) assess a reasonable fee, or develop a comparable equitable plan, for season trapping rights on state-owned property. Assignment of such rights for specific areas may be determined by drawing or by the order in which requests therefor are recorded as received in the office of the commissioner when there is a set fee for such areas, or the method of high bid may be used. No person shall set, place or attend any trap upon the land of another without having in such person's possession the written permission of the owner or lessee of such land, or such owner's or lessee's agent, and no person shall set, place or attend any trap not having the name of the person using such trap legibly stamped thereon or attached thereto, provided the owner or legal occupant of such land or such person as such owner or legal occupant designates may set, place or attend any legal steel trap in any place within a radius of one hundred feet of any permanent building located on such land. No person who sets, places or attends any trap shall permit more than twenty-four hours to elapse between visits to such trap, except that if such twenty-four-hour period expires before sunset, the person who set such trap shall have until sunset to visit the trap. No person shall place, set or attend any snare, net or similar device capable of taking or injuring any animal. The pelt of any fur-bearing animal legally taken may be possessed, sold or transported at any time. Upon demand of any officer having authority to serve criminal process or any representative of the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection, any person in possession of any such pelt shall furnish to such officer or such representative satisfactory evidence that such pelt was legally taken or acquired. No provision of this section shall be construed as prohibiting any landowner or lessee of land used for agricultural purposes or any citizen of the United States, or any person having on file in the court having jurisdiction thereof a written declaration of such person's intention to become a citizen of the United States, who is regularly employed by such landowner or lessee, from pursuing, trapping and killing at any time any fur-bearing animal, except deer, which is injuring any property, or the owner of any farm or enclosure used for breeding or raising any legally acquired fur-bearing animal who has a game breeder's license issued by the commissioner or a fur breeder's license issued by the Department of Agriculture, from taking or killing any such animal legally in his or her possession at any time or having in possession any pelt thereof. No person shall molest, injure or disturb any muskrat house or den at any time. Any fur-bearing animal legally taken alive may be possessed by the person taking the animal, provided the person shall notify the commissioner in a writing signed by the person stating the species and sex of such animal, the date and the name of the town where such animal was taken and the specific address where such animal will be kept. Any representative of the department may at any time inspect such animal and the enclosure or other facilities used to hold such animal and make inquiry concerning the diet and other care such animal should have and if, in the opinion of the commissioner or such representative, such animal is not being provided adequate or proper facilities or care, such animal may be seized by such representative of the department and be disposed of as

Fur-bearing animals taken alive, as provided in this section, shall not be sold or exchanged, provided the person who legally possesses such animal may apply to the commissioner for a game breeder's license or to the Department of Agriculture for a fur breeder's license and when so licensed such person may breed such animal and the progeny thereof, and such issue when three generations removed from the wild may be sold or exchanged alive or dead. Any trap illegally set and any snare, net or similar device found placed or set in violation of the provisions of this section shall be seized by any representative of the department and, if not claimed within twenty-four hours, the commissioner may order such trap, snare, net or other device destroyed, sold or retained for use by the commissioner. Any person who violates any provision of this section or any regulation issued by the commissioner shall be [fined not more than two hundred dollars or be imprisoned not more than sixty days, or both] guilty of a class D misdemeanor. Whenever any person is convicted, or forfeits any bond, or has such person's case nolled upon the payment of any sum of money, or receives a suspended sentence or judgment for a violation of any of the provisions of this section or any regulation issued hereunder by the commissioner, all traps used, set or placed in violation of any such provisions or any such regulation may, by order of the trial court, be forfeited to the state and may be retained for use by the department or may be sold or destroyed at the discretion of the commissioner. The proceeds from any such sale shall be paid to the State Treasurer and the State Treasurer shall credit such proceeds to the General Fund.

Sec. 136. Section 26-81 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

Any person who violates any provision of this part for which no other penalty is provided shall be [fined not less than ten dollars or more than two hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than sixty days or be both fined and imprisoned] guilty of a class D misdemeanor.

Sec. 187. Section 53-329 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

No person, firm or corporation shall possess, use, distribute, exchange, sell or offer for sale in this state any goods, wares or merchandise manufactured, produced or mined wholly or in part by convicts or prisoners of this or any other state, except convicts or prisoners on parole or probation; provided nothing in this section shall be construed to forbid the sale of such goods to the state or any political subdivision thereof, or to any public institution owned and managed or controlled by the state or by any political subdivision thereof, when such goods are to be used or possessed solely by the state, such political subdivision thereof or such institution, or to any person, firm or corporation which may purchase such goods for its use or consumption but not for resale, when such purchase has been approved by the Commissioner of Administrative Services or to forbid sales under the provisions of section 18-46a. Nothing in this section shall be construed to forbid the sale of products or by-products of farming operations conducted for the dual purpose of keeping convicts or prisoners employed and of producing food for use in state institutions, such by-products to include but not to be limited to bulls or bull calves or parts of carcasses thereof resulting from operations conducted to produce milk and cockerel chicks resulting from the incubation of eggs in egg-production activities. The proceeds from all sales resulting from such activities shall be paid to the Treasurer and credited to the industrial fund for the institutions of the Department of Correction created pursuant to section 18-88. Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be [fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than ninety days or be both fined and imprisoned guilty of a class C misdemeanor.

Sec. 188. Section 7-46 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

The registrars shall complete the records of their respective towns by adding thereto a record of all the births, marriages, deaths and fetal deaths that have occurred in such towns since the date of incorporation of such towns, of which no certificate has been returned to their office, provided the facts upon which such record is made have been obtained from the record of a public official, a church society or under section 7-42, 7-48 or 7-62b, and such record shall indicate the source from which such facts were obtained. [Any registrar who knowingly makes any false entry of the record of any birth, marriage, death or fetal death shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than three months or both.]

Sec. 189. Section 22-306 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

- (a) The commissioner shall be responsible for the enforcement of the provisions of sections 22-298, 22-299a, 22-301 and 22-303 to 22-307, inclusive, and shall make such regulations as are necessary thereunder for the eradication of brucellosis, including the handling of the vaccine and method of vaccination, the effective identification of the vaccinated animals, the drawing of blood samples, the testing thereof and the identification of tested animals. Effective identification shall mean that all calves vaccinated with Brucella vaccine shall be permanently identified by the application of a tattoo in the right ear in a manner approved by the United States Livestock Sanitary Association and the Commissioner of Agriculture, except that tattoos applied under the regulations of any recognized breed association shall be considered sufficient identification. The commissioner may enter into cooperative agreements with the United States Department of Agriculture in furtherance of the purposes of said sections.
- (b) Each veterinarian shall report each month, on forms furnished for that purpose by the commissioner, a record of blood samples drawn and of animals vaccinated by him. Any veterinarian not complying with the regulations made by the commissioner for the - control and eradication of brucellosis shall not be assigned any further state work.

- 3453 (c) No person shall change wilfully or knowingly the identification 3454 of any animal by tampering with the ear tag, tattoo or brand or 3455 otherwise, for the purpose of concealing or falsifying any animal's 3456 history as recorded in the files of the state Department of Agriculture.
- [(d) Any person who violates any provision of said sections shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days or both.]
- Sec. 190. Subsection (c) of section 7-294d of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
  - (c) (1) The council may refuse to renew any certificate if the holder fails to meet the requirements for renewal of his or her certification.
  - (2) The council may cancel or revoke any certificate if: (A) The certificate was issued by administrative error, (B) the certificate was obtained through misrepresentation or fraud, (C) the holder falsified any document in order to obtain or renew any certificate, (D) the holder has been convicted of a felony, (E) the holder has been found not guilty of a felony by reason of mental disease or defect pursuant to section 53a-13, (F) the holder has been convicted of a violation of subsection (c) of section 21a-279, [or section 29-9,] (G) the holder has been refused issuance of a certificate or similar authorization or has had his or her certificate or other authorization cancelled or revoked by another jurisdiction on grounds which would authorize cancellation or revocation under the provisions of this subdivision, (H) the holder has been found by a law enforcement unit, pursuant to procedures established by such unit, to have used a firearm in an improper manner which resulted in the death or serious physical injury of another person, or (I) the holder has been found by a law enforcement unit, pursuant to procedures established by such unit, to have committed any act that would constitute tampering with or fabricating physical evidence in violation of section 53a-155, perjury in violation of section 53a-156 or false statement in the second degree in violation of section 53a-157b. Whenever the council believes there is a reasonable basis for cancellation or revocation of the certification of a police officer, police training school or law enforcement instructor, it shall give notice and an adequate opportunity for a hearing prior to such cancellation or revocation. The council may cancel or revoke any certificate if, after a de novo review, it finds by clear and convincing evidence (i) a basis set forth in subparagraphs (A) to (G), inclusive, of this subdivision, or (ii) that the holder of the certificate committed an act set forth in subparagraph (H) or (I) of this subdivision. Any police officer or law enforcement instructor whose certification is cancelled or revoked pursuant to this section may reapply for certification no sooner than two years after the date on which the cancellation or revocation order becomes final. Any police training school whose certification is cancelled or revoked pursuant to this section may reapply for certification at any time after the date on which such order becomes final.

Sec. 191. Subsection (b) of section 13b-268 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

(b) On or after October 1, 1989, no public railroad crossing at grade shall be constructed unless authorized by special act of the General Assembly. The Commissioner of Transportation, upon the request of the joint standing committee on transportation or upon his own initiative, shall investigate and make recommendations concerning the creation of such a crossing. Such investigation shall include a public hearing on the creation of such a crossing. The commissioner shall provide reasonable notice to the town, city or borough where such crossing is to be located, any railroad utilizing the rail line and the party requesting the crossing and to the public through publication of notice in a newspaper having general circulation in the municipality
